

IF FOOD IS YOUR BUSINESS... MEET YOUR LOCAL PRODUCE SUPPLIERS

Wednesday 8th
October 2008

Mackays Hotel, Wick
10am – 4pm

Taste of Caithness & Sutherland 2008 is a great opportunity for businesses in the food and drink sector to meet the best local suppliers of premium produce.

- Around 25 local producers showcasing top quality products
- Cooking demos by Tom Kitchin and Jacqueline O'Donnell

Hungry for more?

If you want to attend, you must register in advance! Contact Project Manager Taryn Robertson via the event organisers Strategem, on 0800 707 6460 or at: [tr Robertson@strategem.co.uk](mailto:tr Robertson@strategem.co.uk)

From meat to organic eggs, fish to oysters, honey to whisky, cheese to oatcakes and more, this is the place to discover how local suppliers can help you increase variety and quality and add a touch of class to your food and drink product.

If that's not enough to whet your appetite, two top chefs will take the cooking stage to show just how much can be done with our excellent local produce. Watch Tom Kitchin at work at 10.15am, and Jacqueline O'Donnell at 2.15pm.

www.scotlandfoodanddrink.org
www.hie.co.uk

SCOTLAND
OF FOOD & DRINK

Event staged by

HIE
Highlands and Islands Enterprise
Iomairt na Gàidhealtachd 's nan Eilean